DEDICATION

We, the staff of "the tatler" for 1933, hereby dedicate this volume to one who has labored diligently in the service of winthrop college and who, by faithful performance of life's daily tasks, has set for us an example of industry and achievement. As a token of great esteem

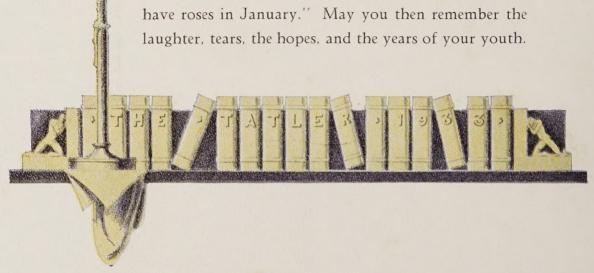

FOREWORD

IN JUNE we shall be graduated, and what of all our dreams and hopes and fears? Will we go out singing a song of joyous youth, or will ours be a low and mournful chant, fearful of the ravages and the desolation of the years to come?

Soon our college life will be only a thing of the past, a memory, but still a realization.

In this volume of THE TATLER, we, the staff, have earnestly sought to reveal the interests and the achievements which have been yours. Our ambition was boundless, for we have hoped and even prayed to make of this book a mirror in which to catch and hold a faint yet glamorous reflection of your college days.

We hope that in the years to come this volume of THE TATLER will refresh and renew your memories, for "God has given us memories so that we might have roses in January." May you then remember the laughter, tears, the hopes, and the years of your youth.

THEME

As a fitting theme for THE 1933 TATLER, I have chosen Books, for they have indeed been a part of our life at Winthrop College. Books stir ambition; they forge the keys that unlock the doors to opportunity; they stimulate our ideals; they have been the source of inspiration and an aid to aspiration. In Books we have the wisdom, the humor, the thoughts and dreams, and the culture of the best minds at their best. Books are more than Books—they are the heart and life of ages past—they are a legacy delivered down through generations to those yet unborn.

As Christopher Morley once said, "Love and friendship and humor and ships at sea by night—there's all heaven and earth in a real book"

I earnestly hope that because of its theme this volume of THE TATLER will mean much to you.

THE COLLEGE

A wealth of books—priceless heritage—making us rich in dreams . . . laying bare to youth the wisdom of all ages . . .

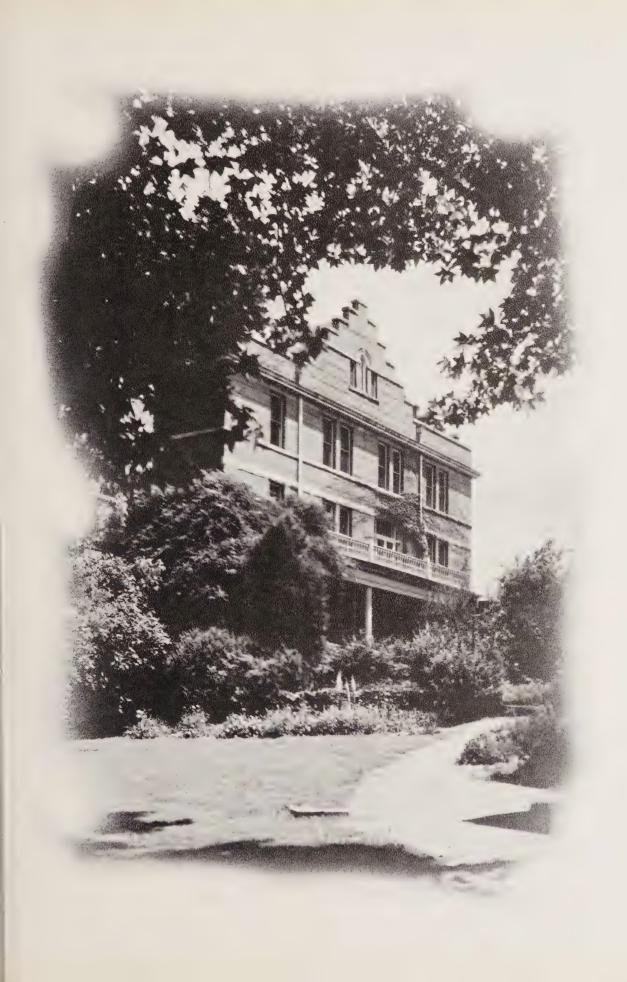

Those who enter here know Romance . . . in a garden illusions last forever . . . dreams come true . . .

Fancy soars above Reality into the blue of Southern skies . . .

Life's slow curves are sometimes hard to understand. My soul seeks the solitude of quiet places . . . tranquil nooks . . .

Within this walled enclosure I know the lure of open gates. Adventure calls me to the quest of fame and fortune, yet I stay to learn the folk and lore of days long since gone by.

Here Ambition—like a fountain drawn from Pierian springs—leaps ever upward to the clouds . . .

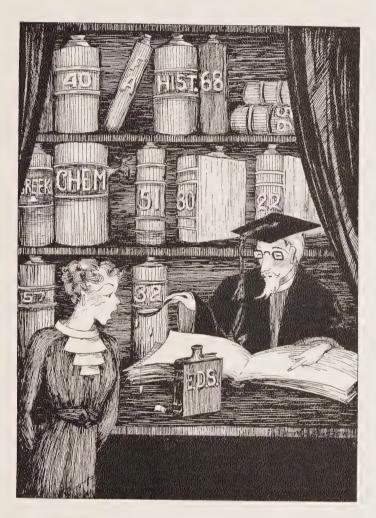

Having come thus far in search of Learning, we pause a moment—as from a magic portico, we glimpse the foam of forbidden seas . . . shores of perilous lands. The sages of the ages whisper warnings . . . "Each life must get its bearings in time and space—each book is but a window through which the soul looks out" . . . and we, the weary, are refreshed. Forgetful of life's troubles and travails, we journey on . . . and upward . . .

Books are yours,

Within whose silent chambers treasure lies
Preserved from age to age; more precious far
Than that accumulated store of gold
And orient gems which, for a day of need,
The Sultan hides deep in ancestral tombs.
These hoards of truth you can unlock at will.

-WILLIAM WORDSWORTH.

These are the masters who instruct us without rods and ferules, without hard words and anger, without clothes or money. If you approach them, they are not asleep; if you interrogate them, they conceal nothing; if you mistake them, they never grumble; if you are ignorant, they cannot laugh at you. . . Whosoever, therefore, acknowledges himself to be a zealous follower of truth, of happiness, of wisdom, of science, or even of faith, must of necessity make himself a Lover of Books.

-Richard de Bury.

Let us stand side by side, Senior Class;

Let us fight to the end of the game;

Honor right colors bright Senior Class

Honor right, colors bright, Senior Class,

And our spirits our only fame.

Oh, we're loyal to Garnet and Black,

And our sisters the Garnet and Grey;

With courage new, we'll be true, Senior Class,

And we will prove that our trusts we'll ne'er betray.

Class Presidents

ELEANOR BELK Freshman President
HELEN GAMBRELL Sophomore President
MABEL MERCER Junior President
CAROLINE PARDUE Senior President

These four girls have served as Presidents of the Class of '33 during the four years we have been at Winthrop. Each President did much for the class during her term of office.

Senior History

SHORT SHAVINGS FROM A CLASSIC BULLDOG

I. SALADS

GREENNESS—TRIAL-AND-ERROR

First night at Winthrop—initiation—orientation—acclimatization—registration—I. Q.'s—"O Mighty Sophomore, I am but a lowly worm"—Blue line—fifth floor for classes—inferiority complexes—superiority infemalexes—79 days till Christmas—misunderstood—six more current prose reports—a box from home—Christmas holidays and fingerwaves—ten-cent stores—folk-dancing—elbow débuts (spring is here!)—walking from church in the rain—riding on sunny days—laundry night—new board members—double periods—new classroom building—library methods—gradual approach of wisdom and

II. BEEF-BROTH AND BISCUITS EARNESTNESS—DILIGENCE

Library crusades—Vitaphone—Marlene Dietrich—concentration—hydrogen sulphide and essence of acacia blossoms—bluer slips—''Rigoletto''—Dame Nature and May Day—Senior teas—Beowulf and the Treaty of Westphalia—fire-drill—should I major in music or am I better on social theory?—Charlotte—Denishawn Dancers—dissipation of self-righteous gloom, and

III. RHUBARB AND DILL PICKLE

Aw, G'wan!—Why Should Mohammed Go To the Mountain?

Majors and minors, mostly minors—crip courses—The Swan—they're the craziest, those professors—methods (various and sundry)—Garbo complexes and that soulful stare—'pink ice cream''—two week-ends for Spring Holidays—Junior-Senior—chapel programs—Spring elections—observations—crushes—'Lyric Silhouettes''—Quiet Hour vs. Study Period—Do Not Disturb—Arrival of gravity, and

IV. CAVIAR AND BLUEBERRY JAM SOPHISTICATION—SOBER INTENTS

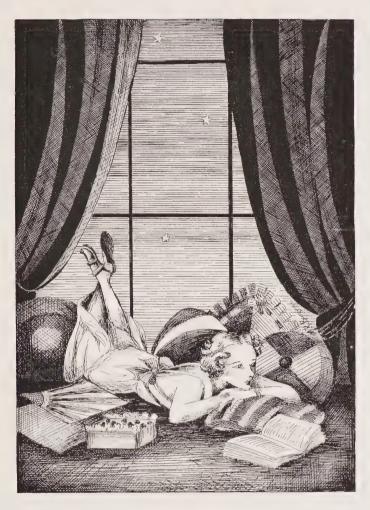

Training School on rainy days—pep meeting—Florence Austral—"Arms and the Man"—last term papers—forensic tilts with Yale, Inc.—applications and inquiries—Johnsonian vs. Tiger (he roars for Clemson—and anything)—Little Theatre—"To be or Not to Be"—(Spring Holidays speaking)—inauguration: Roosevelt, Roosevelt, and if you desire variety pronounce it as in "rooster"—model league assembly—optional Sunday vespers—milk toast for breakfast—new books in the library—recommendations—synthetic blondes—Mother Goose bows to her public—cap and gown—$2 worth of parchment, and

ON WITH THE SHOW

—E. BAKER.

Books! those miraculous memories of high thoughts and golden moods; those silver shells, tremulous with the wonderful secrets of the ocean of Life; those love-letters that pass from hand to hand of a thousand lovers that never meet; those honey-combs of dreams; those orchards of knowledge; those still-beating hearts of the noble dead; those mysterious signals that beckon along the darksome pathways of the past; immortal nightingales that sing forever to the rose of life—Books.

-Richard Le Gallienne.

Junior Class Song

Oh! Junior Class, we'll be faithful to Gold and Blue, We'll stand by each other the whole journey through, We'll hold high your standards through thick and thin, We'll play the game squarely, and win—win—win! Oh! we'll stand by each other as long as we live, Our hearts and our voices to you gladly give, We'll all work together for you evermore, That's the spirit of '34!

Junior Class History

Old "Blue and Gold" has topped one more rung in Winthrop's ladder—on the highroad to success. Never would these "Jolly Juniors" be looked upon as the eager troupe who entered in September, 1930. Passing through the routine work of "Freshies"—Orientation, Rat Week, first exams—and on through the thrills that give "a spice to life"—pep meeting, hockey and basketball games, Junior Follies and Home-going—they emerged into those never-to-be-forgotten wise "ole" Sophs.

Here they well acquitted their duties in the dramatic field—as well as on the athletic field—"the new poor"—a smashing hit—firmly established their record. Then came a change in the lives of these vertible "seers"—a new class song! Hoorah! Sophomores! Ever onward, through another "Follies" and Home-going, they came back—strong and undaunted—the jolly Juniors.

No less praiseworthy, "Pygmalion and Galatea" added yet another star to their crown. Then the hockey games! The Juniors blazed forth undefeated and more undaunted. The big thrill! Arrival of class rings! Will that day ever be forgotten in the hearts of this "tribe"?

With unbounded vim and vigor, they marched on to their own Junior Follies and to that memorable occasion—Junior-Senior! With only one more rung ahead before the very top is attained, this "jolly band" presses steadily forward—holding aloft the "Blue and Gold" and singing out with "might and main"—

Juniors! For Aye!

—CLEMIEGENE TEAGUE.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomore Class Song

Nineteen hundred and thirty-five,

The class of Garnet and Grey,

Side by side with '33,

We'll fight to win the way.

Sometimes in the near future

You will hear them say,

With plenty of pep

We've won the rep

For the Sophomore Class.

Sophomores! Sophomores! The class will back the cry.

We're here to do or die!

Sophomores! Sophomores!

We'll win the game or know the reason why!

Sophomore Class History

"With plenty of pep,
We've won the 'rep'
For the Sophomore Class."

Is it possible that the open-mouthed, bewildered, and dazed Freshmen who gathered here on Friday, September 4, 1931, are the alert, peppy, studious, and lordly Sophomores of today? The mental gymnastics of orientation tests, the ignominy of green ribbons, the kindly advice of upper classmen—especially our ever-wise friends, the Sophomores, the gentle reminders of mid-term slips helped us to tone down our vivid greenness.

Welcome from the older girls made us more appreciative of our new environment. So, after adjusting ourselves to college life, we became a hard fighting class with one purpose in our hearts—to win. We entered into all college activities, debates, dramatics, and every sport. Some of our Freshmen were rewarded by blocks in hockey, swimming, baseball, track, tennis and archery.

And now Sophomores! After a year's travel on the rugged road of learning. We who had left as Freshmen returned as proud, haughty Sophomores. We began just where we left off, and resolved to make this year even greater than the past one.

We have the present Freshman class to testify to the warm and whole-hearted reception we gave them. And then the pep meeting—the splendid co-operation of the class in the songs, the work of the decoration committee, Dr. Thomson's clever statements of the merits of our class—and last but not least, the chattering and squealing of "Bill," our mascot, won for us that highly valued tin loving cup to keep among our souvenirs. Our hockey and swimming teams had that same fine spirit of coöperation. And the class backed the cry

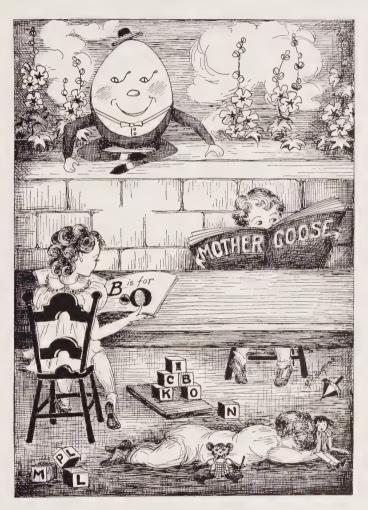

"We'll win the game
Or know the reason why."

At the half-way point of our college careers we are determined to continue to make a history that we shall be able to look back upon with no regrets, but with memories of joy and happiness.

—FRANCES WYLIE.

Books are a guide in Youth, and an entertainment for Age. They support us under Solitude, and keep us from being a Burden to ourselves. They help us forget the Crossness of Men and Things; compose our Cares, and our Passions; and lay our Disappointments asleep.

—Jeremy Collier.

FRESHMEN

Freshman Class Song

Though we are only Freshmen,

Don't you forget

We have the spirit;

We'll surprise you yet.

Just wait and watch us do it!

Class of '36 never gives in;

Fight to the finish, girls,

We're out to win!

Freshman Class History

September 12, 1932, saw four hundred and fifty excited and bewildered Freshmen enter the gates of Winthrop.

The first days were a jumble of broken rules, campus touring and intelligence tests. The bigness of Winthrop seemed to tower above us. We felt so minute and yet so important over being college Freshmen. We were actually shaking hands with life!

The Juniors' party at the shack was fun, and we felt that we had been recognized as a class.

It wasn't long before the mighty Sophomores arrived and started "strutting the monkey" around the campus. Our bubble of importance was immediately broken. We had become lowly worms! "Ratting" was lots of fun; however, we were glad when that was up and we could go about unadorned by little green bows.

Then came the hockey season! Of all excitement! We worked and toiled out on the field. Finally the fatal day arrived when the team was chosen. They were a fine lot! We were proud to have them wear the black and gold at the pep meeting at which we humbly perched in the balcony.

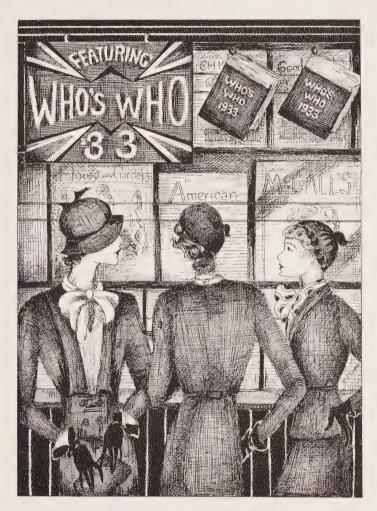

We're a great bunch. That's self-respect. May the Tiger ever roar for the black and the gold.

—COLEMAN HARRIS.

Good Books, like good friends, are few and chosen; the more select the more enjoyable; and like these are approached with diffidence, nor sought too familiarly nor too often, having precedence only when friends tire...

A. Bronson Alcott.

FEATURES

I am too ill and too busy to write a letter for publication, but here is the list by books. It is impossible to select the eight books a girl should read while in sollege. She list extends itsely to 80 or I have selected, instead, eight books that she could read with proper and may read with pleasure. It is no good saying that she should read the classics, for she won't - not with enjoyment; and a book read as a duty serves no good. The subconscion mind simply reguses to store it up. The good from books is absorbed more or less unconsciously. To read profitably is to read with pleasure. I have left out the Bille and Shakespeare, read them years ago - or as much ? Them as she could enjoy reading. as to the fine old novels and the classies, their style makes them anotherna. to the modern girl. They are for print-hungry youngsters in their early teens who have no other reading natter to pervert their taste, or for middle-aged folk who have grown tried of hash and learned to appreciate solid things they can set their mental teeth in. So I have listed eight books, all modern, without trying to set up an impossible ideal to show my endition. The chief virtue of these is that they not only should be read but conceivably vice be. Them, she will be mashamed in the company of the "educated". Cordially

Nolit Duelen.

Some books are to be tasted, others are to be swallowed, and some few are to be chewed and digested; that is, some books are to be read only in parts; others are to be read, but not curiously; and some few are to be read wholly, and with diligence and attention.

Royal Order of the Strawberry Leaf

The Royal Order of the Strawberry Leaf was founded on the Winthrop campus in 1928 to honor outstanding work in the Debaters' League. The aim of the Strawberry Leaf is to recognize excellency in debate work, platform management, and management of assemblies. The strawberry leaf was chosen as the symbol of the organization in accord with classical traditions and because the strawberry leaf is a common plant in most of the United States.

PURPOSE

In October, 1933, the Country Life Club was organized for the purpose of cultivating among Winthrop students an interest in all phases and aspects of country life. The program of this club consists of bringing to the Winthrop campus speakers qualified to discuss vital questions pertaining to country life. Despite the short time of activity the Country Life Club known, its membership at present numbers four hundred and ninety-five of the Winthrop students. only requirement made of applicants for membership is that they be sincerely interested in all or any of the phases of country life. There are no membership fees or dues of any kind charged by the Country Life Club. The officers of the organization consist of a president, vicepresident, secretary, and a council which serves as the functioning unit of the organization. The chairmen of the various committees compose the council of the club.

PRESENTATION OF ORATORIO "THE MESSIAH"

Page Two Hundred Thirty-five

The love of Books is a love which requires neither justification, apology, nor defence. It is a good thing in itself; a possession to be thankful for, to rejoice over, to be proud of, and to sing praises for. With this love in his heart no man is ever poor, ever without friends, or the means of making life lovely, beautiful, and happy . . .

HISTORY OF SOCIAL CLUBS

Social clubs at Winthrop College began in 1906 when the first social club on the campus was formed. The activities of the social clubs were at first regulated by a Pan-Hellenic Council, which consisted of representatives from the seven oldest clubs. In 1927, when there were thirty clubs on the campus, the Pan-Hellenic Council was replaced by a Federation of Social Clubs. From this body a Standards Committee was chosen for the purpose of regulating club activities. The Standards Committee was composed of representatives from the clubs which were qualified according to age, scholarship, and purpose of the organizations.

The rapid increase in the number of clubs on the campus made further change necessary. In order to provide a competent regulative and legislative body, an Executive Committee, or Council, was established. Membership on this Council was limited to twelve representatives chosen from the Standard Clubs. All legislative functions and regulatory powers over social clubs are vested in the Standards Executive Council of the Federation of Social Clubs. Today the Federation consists of about forty clubs. Of this number over half have met the qualifications exacted by the Standards Committee and are known as Standard Clubs.

Except a living man, there is nothing more wonderful than a book!—a message to us from the dead—from human souls we never saw, who lived, perhaps, thousands of miles away; and yet these, on those little sheets of paper, speak to us, amuse us, vivify us, teach us, and comfort us . . .

---Charles Kingsley.

WILLIAMS BROWN ARTHUR

THREE BEST ATHLETES OF 1931-32

The Executive Board of Athletic Association annually elects the three girls whom it considers to be the best athletes of that year. Those elected for the year 1931-32 were Susan Williams. Julia Brown, and Jean Arthur.

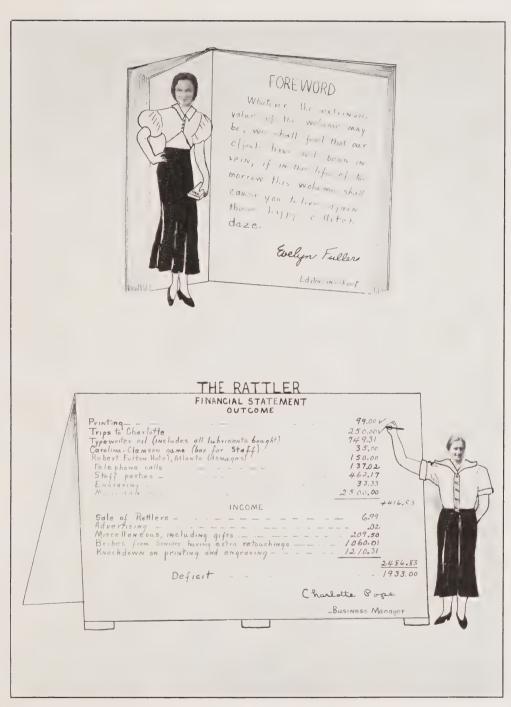

And of this let every one be assured—that he owes to the impassioned books which he has read, many a thousand more of emotions than he can consciously trace back to them. Dim by their origination, these emotions yet arise in him, and mould him through life like forgotten incidents of childhood . . .

—Thomas de Quincey.

RARE VIEWS

Book in hand I wander far from Appearances of front campus—a Vision of Spring in Winter whispers to me of Earth's Immortalities. My path down rails of glory is beset with Misconceptions. The Worst of It is Time's Revenge. Tin cans and orange crates well bespeak the Influence of Nature. Where lies the land where love exists among the ruins?—(Apologies to Browning and Tennyson for thus quoting the titles of various poems.)

ON THE SHELF

ON THE SHELF

(With apologies to Mr. Hardy)

I Wonder

How Nell Leitner would look with long curls? and if anybody ever called her Nellie Sallie?

If Bog and Lois can go to sleep at night—cause even with the lights off their sparklers illuminate the room.

Why our dining room has come to be such a "doggy" place?

If Grace Craig uses . . . to roll her hair up at night?

If Izzie will be able to correct school papers with one hand and keep house with the other?

How many Nickles has Eunice got?
Is Ruth Frank? -> Damm Tight!

Why Esther is always in a Hough?

Did Cornelia Baker cake?

Did Frances Shearer desk with you?

When Nancy dropped the dish did she Crockett?

Is Catherine All-good?

If you have ever heard Ruth Crow?

What sort of cards does Maggie Lee Deale?

Did you see Margaret Fowler ball?

Is Annie Ruth one of your Nabors?

Did you see Grace Huggin?

What did Mary Ware?

If Lois Sawyer when you done it?

Can Virginia Reid?

If by this time your mind is jus' a-wanderin' too?

One dark and stormy night we were coming back from Charlotte. The wind was howling . . . the rain was pouring down . . .

One prominent senior, usually intelligent, gazed calmly out of the car window and, with apparent disregard for the elements, remarked, "It'd be a pretty night-if it weren't raining." (So much for education—!)

Another prominent senior, in teaching a history class became so engrossed in discussing the new administration that she made the following remark, "Wonder what Mr. Hoover and Mr. Coolidge think about the things Mr. Roosevelt is doing?" Needless to say suppressed giggles were next on the program.

From our history courses we know that our medieval forefathers lost much sleep arguing the question: "How many angels could dance on the point of a needle?"

Here at Winthrop we prove the generalization that history repeats itself—the only difference is a change in the query. Now we solemnly argue the honorable question of "How many inches wide can a narrow collar be and still be a narrow collar?"

Who would have thought that men's fashions should have become so all important to feminine minds this spring? The Senior Class nearly came to blows over "what young men should wear!"

Mistakes

Stimuli is that which externally causes living organisms to readjust themselves in order to preserve their integrity.

System (body) is the way in which something is done.

Harpies are like women but much more horrible.

The voice originates in the pharynx by action of neck muscles and is involuntary.

Exploration is breathing out.

There are three cuspidors in the permanent set of teeth.

Bones give liverage to the body.

Napoleon was followed on the throne of France by Charlemague. Swinging the arm around is circumventure.

Diaphragm is the muscle of the body that causes one to yawn.

Allegory is the part of the human body that cannot be seen with the naked eye. When the ducks (tear ducts) are stopped, tears result.

Hunger is caused by contraction of taste buds in the stomach.

Morphology is the science of sleep. An octaroon is an eight-sided cuspidor.

The heart bumps blood.

The uniform bone is in the wrist.

By Cartesian philosophy we mean—never believe anything that you cannot see, and not much of that.

TRUE-FALSE

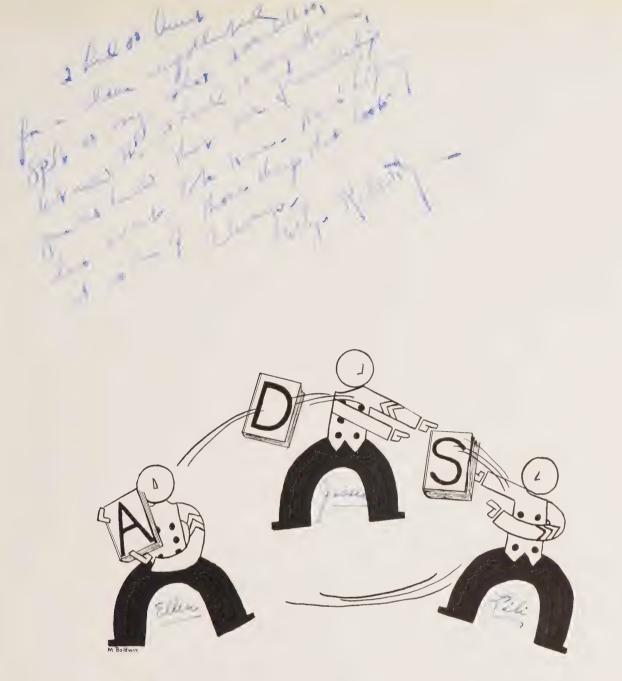

Mark + or -

EXAMPLE: - Marie Taylor can't play the piano.

- 1. A senior is one who is not behind more than half an hour.
- 2. Campus flowers and shrubs are to be used for the decoration of students' rooms, so Piggly Wiggly, girls.
- 3. Victrolas may be played during class in an attempt to drown out the professors. They also may be played on Sunday mornings in order to prevent students from remaining in the arms of Morpheus.
- The infirmary is filled every Monday morning with sick girls.
- 5. Smoking is not permitted on the campus except in the rooms provided for this purpose.
- 6. You are dumb if you read this.
- Students may not go out at night more than seven times a week.
- 8. Students may use electrical appliances in their rooms only for the purpose of self-beautification. No cooking may be done in rooms because it "disfigures" the said
- 9. Girls may go home without having permission.
- 10. All of these statements are true.

What is an annual?

- ... to some . . . just another printing order.
- ... to us an opportunity to record history in its making . . . for an annual is a history of the school for the year in which it is published.

It is made today for its value tomorrow, to bring back to mind the happy memories of school days.

And with a keen appreciation of this future value, coupled with the experience of more than thirty years, we work closely with, and for, the school that the annual may be a complete, interesting history.

It may be next term . . . or a few years away in college . . . but when your thoughts turn to the publication of an annual may we have the opportunity of telling you more of the service we can render.

Acknowledgments

Unless somewhere at sometime a book finds a reader it cannot possibly fulfill the ambition of its author. Likewise, despite our many aspirations toward achievement, we could have accomplished nothing without the help of certain persons. For their assistance in producing this book "of books," we wish to express our appreciation and sincere gratitude to the following individuals:

Messrs. L. C. Boyer, W. J. Crichton, Jr., L. W. Hutchins and W. J. Mitchell, of the Observer Printing House, Inc., Charlotte, N. C.;

Miss Helen Morgan and Mr. J. W. Bradley, of the Photo-Process Engraving Company, Atlanta, Ga.;

Messrs. M. F. Dunbar and T. N. Daniel, of Dunbar & Daniel Studio, Raleigh, N. C.;

Mr. J. Thompson Brown, Faculty Adviser of THE TATLER;

The 1933 TATLER Staff;

Mr. Robert Quillen, of Fountain Inn, S. C., for his selection of the Feature Section;

Mrs. F. N. K. Bailey, of Sebring, Fla., for her gift of a scrapbook on Books:

"Polly" Fuller and "Pudge" Pardue, who so often heard "tales of THE TATLER" and yet continued as our roommates;

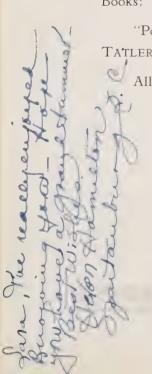

All those who have in any way contributed to the success of this book.

EVELYN FULLER, Editor-in-Chief,

CHARLOTTE POPE,

Business Manager.
